

When Love Languishes

Love chained to a coal hod is a sorry spectacle. Men chafe at the burden of climbing stairs with a coal scuttle—once in a while they do it with an "Oh let me help you dear" expression, but the moment it becomes a daily duty, the joy is fled.

Hermetic Favorite Warm Air Heaters

do away with coal hod slavery for men and women. Women love cleanliness and if this is impossible, then the house is not home. Men should not expect their wives to put up with such old-style methods.

The radiator on this furnace is one solid casting. There is not a particle of cement used in its construction. You will see by referring to cut that the sides and door of the radiator are not parallel but converge toward the top compelling the air and dust in its upward course to impinge the entire surface of the radiator and absorb to the fullest extent the heat generated from it.

We cheerfully furnish estimates, free of charge. We also would like for you to come in and inspect this furnace closely.

Death of John Blum.

Our community was shocked by the news of the sudden death of John Blum, one of our pioneer citizens, Sunday morning, February 11, 1917, death being due to hemorrhage of the brain.

Mr. Blum retired Saturday night in his usual health, having spent the evening up town together with Mrs. Blum.

About 6:30, Sunday morning, Mrs. Blum was awakened by an unusual tremor of his body, and asked the cause. He was able to answer at first, but soon became paralyzed, and at 12:02 succumbed to the inevitable, scarcely regaining consciousness, and passing away without a struggle.

John Blum was born March 14, 1852, at Booneville, Cooper county, Missouri, and was married to Mary Leona Devors, November 11, 1883, in Kingsley, Hall county, Missouri. To this union were born four children, Don Lamar, John Henry, who died at the age of 1 year and 4 months, at Kingsley, Missouri; Norma Lee and Helen Marie, all of whom were able to reach home Monday in response to the sad message received.

Since leaving St. Joseph, Mo., in December, 1901, Mr. Blum has been interested in the hardware business, assisting in the store of Henry Blum, until 1903, when he with his partner, Joseph Meister, engaged in the business for themselves, retiring three years ago, February 14.

Two sisters, Mrs. J. H. Wagenknecht, of Wathena, Kansas, and Mrs. Carrie B. Meyer, of Lander, Wyoming, arrived Tuesday to attend the funeral, while the remaining sisters and brothers, Mrs. F. T. Dwinell and Mrs. Dr. W. L. Whittington, Frank Blum, of St. Joseph, and Will Blum, of Kansas City, Mo., were unable to come.

During the years Mr. Blum lived here he had formed many strong ties of friendship, because of his integrity, honesty and loyalty. He was never obtrusive, no man was ever freer from self assertion, but in his ideas of right was immovable. He was a kind husband and father, ever thoughtful of their comfort and pleasure. Truly, he was a gentleman in every sense of the word implies.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful, attesting the high esteem in which he was held.

Mr. Blum was a member of the local M. W. A. and Woodmen of the World, of St. Joseph.

The funeral services were held in the M. E. church, Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. D. Walker. The remains were tenderly laid to rest in Rest Haven cemetery. The Palisade Times, Palisade, Nebraska, February 16, 1917.

Mr. Blum will be well remembered here, having been engaged in business with Herman Rhinehart, restaurant, confections, etc., along about 1879-80. He was also married here, April 4, 1878, to his first wife, Miss Julia Ann, daughter of the late George Meyer and wife, who died August 4, 1879, there being no children from this issue. His second wife, Miss Mary Devors, was also at one time a resident of this county, having lived in the Kimsey district, near Forest City, with her parents. He leaves many friends here, who extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved wife and children.

—B. H. Asendorf, a former Holt county boy, born and raised near Craig, but now located at Nebraska City, Nebraska, was here for a few hours, last week. This was his first visit to Oregon, and he was well pleased with the town.

Death of Ed. Gibson.

Charles Edward (Ed) Gibson, a native of Holt county, who spent his entire life of 63 years in this county, and with the exception of some three years spent at the old family home farm, just north of this city, which was purchased some three years ago by Elmer Crider, and Ed only left the old farm because of his ill health, and purchased a little home in the Glen Echo addition, where he simply waited for his final summons, having been a paralytic for several years. Of late he had been suffering greatly, and with his wife, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Jacob Bucher, went to Hot Springs, Arkansas, hoping for some benefit, but they were only there some ten days, when the white winged messenger came and took him to the other shore.

Mr. Gibson was born in this county, December 8, 1853, and died at Hot Springs, Arkansas, February 15, 1917, at the age of 63 years, 2 months and 7 days. He was the youngest of a family of twelve children, and the son of John Gibson, who served as judge of our county court, serving during the years, 1850-54, coming here in the winter of 1839-40. His mother died in 1866, when he was 13 years old, and his father died in 1873, when he was 20, and Ed followed his way and gradually became the owner of the old homestead.

In 1874, he married Miss Lou Bucher, who together with a sister, Mrs. Jacob Bohart, of Mound City, survive, and a large number of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held from the Glen Echo home, Sunday last, February 18, conducted by Elder B. H. Dawson, assisted by Rev. W. C. Johnson, and was largely attended; the interment was in Maple Grove cemetery.

Many beautiful floral tributes came from friends and relatives, bearing their fragrant and silent messages of love and respect.

Beside His Grave.

The following parties came from the north part of our county to pay their last sad tribute to their friend, Ed Gibson: James and John Cutler, Fred Burnett and wife, Jacob Bohart, Will Frank, Ed and Jim Gibson and family, John Hagby and wife, Marion Wilson; Mrs. A. A. Disque, of St. Joseph; Mrs. Della Crews, of Craig.

Card of Thanks.

Will those kind friends and relatives accept my grateful appreciation and acknowledgement of their many kindly deeds and acts, during the recent illness and passing of my dearly beloved husband? Their care and interest shown will ever be appreciated by me.

LOU GIBSON.

Obituary.

John S. Princehouse was born near Zanesville, Ohio, May 26, 1834, and died in Mound City, Mo., February 6, 1917, being 82 years, 8 months and 10 days of age. He was married to Lucinda Judd, October 1, 1857, and to this union three children were born, one son dying in infancy; Edward, now living in British Columbia; Mrs. Marie Meek, of Mound City, with whom he lived. He united with the Methodist church when 27 years of age, and remained steadfast in his faith.

He leaves to mourn his death, one son, one daughter, ten grand-children, one great-grandchild and a host of friends.

Poland-China Breeder.

Emmett Hinkle was in town, Monday, and is making arrangements to take possession of his splendid farm and elegant home which he recently purchased from Edward Fuhrman. He is a breeder of a pure-bred strain of Poland-China hogs, and has just returned from St. Joseph, where he purchased two pure-bred sows, weighing from 600 to 700 pounds each, and four gilts. They are from the tops of Walter W. Head's herd, of St. Joseph, and are bred to Model Big Bob, who weighs 950 pounds; the other is bred to Big Wonder.

Wedding Bells.

Bowness-Frieze.

On February 17, 1917, at 4 p. m., was solemnized the marriage of Miss Leda Frieze to Mr. James Bowness, at the home of the bride's parents, ten miles northwest of Craig, Rev. L. P. Parker, pastor of the Pleasant View church, officiating, using the ring ceremony. During the strains of the wedding march, which was played by Miss Mary Bowness, sister of the groom, the bridal pair meeting at the door of the parlor and crossing the room, preceded by Rev. Parker, stood in front of a bank of blooming plants, where the ceremony was said. After congratulations, a delicious three-course dinner was served in the dining room. The table decorations consisted of cut flowers and a floral design, which had been used at the golden wedding of the bride's grandfather.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bowness. The bride is a younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Frieze.

Besides the immediate members of the two families there were present: Mrs. Wm. Smith, of St. Joseph; Miss Anna Jackson, Mr. Jas. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Yuba New, Miss Bell and Mr. Louis Tyson, Miss Emma Buntz, Misses Mamie and Carrie Frieze, Miss Mittle Dovel, Floyd Porter, Mrs. Parker and Mr. Marvin Heck.

The bride was beautifully attired in a suit of gray cloth, with chiffon waist and hat to match, with trimmings of roses. She wore a corsage bouquet of tea roses and lilies of the valley.

After dinner, the young couple left on an evening train for a wedding trip.

This is a union of two of the best families of this splendid neighborhood, and with the sterling worth of the young people themselves, surely here can be no other for them than a happy, useful career. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Bowness will be at home on a farm, in the neighborhood in which they were reared. A number of beautiful and handsome gifts were received. P.

Hearts Beat As One.

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Geo. Watson was the scene of a very pretty home wedding, Wednesday evening, February 14, 1917, when their attractive and popular daughter, Leta Ruth, was united in marriage to Mr. Lee Beavers.

Owing to the serious illness of the bride's grandfather, the affair was a quiet one, but nevertheless, a happy one.

The bride is very popular, both in social and religious circles. She was a zealous church worker, and will be missed in the church and Sunday school.

The groom is the son of Samuel Beavers, and is a young man of sterling character, and is one of our promising young farmers.

The couple have the best wishes of a host of friends, who wish them a long and happy journey as they go down the path of life together.

May prosperity attend their path.

Oiled Roads.

The Mound City Journal speaks of the Mound City-Bigelow road as being in most excellent condition, but points it should be oiled, and wants some information on oiled roads. The National Agricultural department has issued some fine literature on the subject, and we expect that by writing Congressman Booher he might be able to obtain something interesting on this subject.

Our opinion is that if you will first shape the road with a grader, then oil it, then disk it and then roll it with a heavy roller, and then repeat the dose—disk, oil and roll—you will and you will have an excellent oil roadway.

ITEMIZER.

Obituary.

When H. C. Hines passed away at his home, near Fortescue, last Tuesday morning, February 13, at 12:30 a. m., this neighborhood lost one of its oldest citizens. Mr. Hines had suffered for several months with that dreaded Bright's disease, but it was not thought that the end was so near until just a few days ago.

Henry Clay Hines was born in Putnam county, Indiana, May 27, 1851, and reached the age of 65 years, 8 months and 16 days. In the year of 1871, he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Jane Butcher, and in 1882 they moved to Holt county. They first lived on the old Mill Yard, known as the Jake Book farm where they resided a short time. They later moved to the farm, near Fortescue, where the family have made their home until the present time. Mr. Hines became a member of the Bigelow Camp, W. O. W., No. 35, June 12, 1897, and was one of the camp's most respected members, and until a few years ago, was an earnest worker for the order, and attended lodge regularly, taking an active interest in it until the last few years, carrying $2000 insurance in the order in favor of his wife. He leaves a wife, one son, one daughter, ten grand-children, and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held at the Tarkio Chapel church, at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, by Rev. Carl T. Davis, of Craig, under the auspices of the Bigelow Camp, W. O. W., No. 35, and the remains were tenderly laid away in the Tarkio Chapel cemetery.

Card of Thanks:—We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the sickness and death of our beloved husband, father and grandfather, and also for the beautiful floral offerings.
